DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Elizabeth Oravec, well known resident of Calhan, Colo., passed away yesterday at a local hospital following an illness of short duration. She was brought to Pueblo by her husband several weeks ago and placed in a sanitarium where every care was given her but she continued to fail and passed away peacefully yesterday. Mrs. Oravec was 21 years of age and is survived by her husband, Charles Oravec. The remains were removed to the McCarthy parlors and will be forwarded to Calhan for interment this morning.

The body of the late John H. Buckley, was forwarded last night by the McCarthy Undertaking company, to Alta Vista, Iowa, for interment accompanied by his wife and daughter.

The funeral of William Sitton will take place this morning from the residence of his parents, 1100 Topaz avenue, at 8:30 o'clock and from St. Patrick church at 9. Interment will be in Roselawn under the direction of the McCarthy Undertaking company.

The funeral of Markus M. Hendrickson will be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the United Undertaking company's chapel. Rev. R. J. Peterson will officiate. W. O. W. Pueblo Camp No. 2 will attend in a body and exemplify their ritualistic services at the grave. Interment will be in Mountain View.

The funeral of Angelo Michele Vannalli was held yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the late residence at Currie avenue and at 2 o'clock from Mt. Carmel church. Rev. Father Giglio officiated. The flower-bearers were V. Concialdi, G. Nicholas, A. Mussell, L. Totora, A. Mortisconi and D. Genovere. The pall-bearers were G. Picciotta, T. Poruichio, M. Cimato, L. Perucco, C. Venuto and L. Picenich. Columbus' lodge No. 62, headed by band escorted the body from the residence to the grave where their ritualistic services were exemplified. Interment was in Roselawn under the direction of the United Undertaking company.

The funeral of Mary Honrich will be held Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. from the United Undertaking company's chapel. Interment will be in Roselawn.
