requiring a final
ns after completion
be accepted from
w harbor defense
vill go to see tours run. Captain
and, but the trial
irection of a trial
Captain W. C.
Commanders Staf-
tenant Branch and TaTwresy. Full
draught will be
ressel for the full
l run of from two
o to be made. It
e Wyoming will
s and be formally
ernment from the
hough the full six
re until June 8.

e Court

4.—The supreme
States today ad-
ay, the 18th inst.,
announce opinions,
t to listen to argu-

IN ICE.

—Of the crew of 72
n St. Malo, France.
French fishing brig
Servan, 65 reached
Phoenix liner St.
erp. Of the others
rboard and downed
pril 25 and one died.
he St. Andrew the
ew had just about
g the brig afloat.
a terrible trip, be-
he ice and crushed
by a severe storm.

Your telephone, like modern illuminations, is indispensible after you have had one in your home.

SAW THE PRESIDENT.

Mr. V. Eksentrik was Johnny-on-the-spot when the president's train arrived yesterday and he took particular pains to notice that the best dressed people in the crowd which welcomed Roosevelt wore up-to-date $12 and $15 suits bought at the New York Clothing House, 328 south Union avenue.

MARRIED.

FOSTER—HEMTHORN.—On Monday, May 4, 1903, at the home of E. J. Jones, 402 Michigan street, Miss Katy Foster and Walter Hemthorn.

DIED

BERRYMAN—Monday, May 4, 1903, in Vineland, Mary N. Berryman, aged 76 years.

The funeral will take place in Vineland this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The remains are to be sent to Lexington, Ill., for interment.

SOMES—Monday, May 4, 1903, at her residence at 1726 Lake street, Josephine Belle, wife of George F. Somes.

Funeral will take place from the home at 2 o'clock today. Interment at Mountain View cemetery.

1-2

New Yo
Consultat

Those
Suits
are pro
you bee
FR
Old Reli
"S

F
COO
SCI
509 North
TUESDA
Fourth of th
"Vegeta
ALL W
MRS. LOU
Dem