tising results from the Chieftain, as well as the desire to own one of these machines. Manager Renkel of the agency states that in order to get in on the 100 club at this price prospective purchasers should advise the agency at once and he also states that while giving $2.50 to each purchaser this week has its drawbacks he will do so until the 100 club is completed, which according to last reports, does not lack many. This machine is well liked, and is said to be one of the very finest cleaning devices on the market.

DIED

CHAVEZ—Baltzar, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Chavez, died yesterday at the family residence in Wiley and Chamberlain's addition. Funeral services will be held at the late residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock after which the remains will be interred in Roselawn under the direction of McCarthy.

GUADINO—Joseph Guadino, aged 48 years, well known in Rockvale, Colo., where he had resided for many years, died at a local hospital yesterday. Mr. Guadino was brought to Pueblo several days ago for medical treatment but was too weak to withstand the ravages of disease. He was a member of Odd Fellows and Foresters of America. The remains were removed to McCarthy's and will be forwarded today to Florence, Colo., for interment, accompanied by his wife and son.

ONE WEEK MORE

Our offer of an elegant photo enlargement free with each dozen photos ordered here, will expire one week from today. Don't neglect to take prompt advantage of this opportunity while you can. Remember that a deposit will hold the work until Christmas, but we are anxious to have sittings made now before the usual holiday rush—hence this offer.
