the Cincinnati Ice
who are putting in
superintending the
, kindly gave the
of the process the
gh before it emerges

corner of the engine
retort, 35 feet high.
rate the an-hydrous
mmonia. The retort
f extra heavy pipes
the boilers goes di-
and the liquid, in a
te, goes to what is
d is there boiled and
. From the dearea-
ough three coils of bottom of two large
which are six feet of
nce to a sponge box
freezing tanks.
he freezing tank in
ically pure condition
out in frozen blocks
for family use than
nature. The Pue-& Cold Storage com-
pital of $100,000 and
ken. The outlay on
pleted will be in ex-

company are: Presi-
t; vice president, A.
y, L. B. Strait; treas-
s. Directors, F. H.
ton, J. J. Thomas, F.
Doyle, W. W. Strait

C PEOPLE.

articularly on Union
be the most patriotic
ast night, at least as nd the discharge of rned. From 9 o'clock
din was unceasing
ntinually illuminated
and Roman candles
echnics. The streets stages, in hopes that the change will benefit her. Uncle Mac disliked very much to see "Mother" go, but when she insisted he equipped them all nicely and started them on their way rejoicing. They will be gone till September.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CHILCOTT.

The funeral of Mrs. H. C. Chilcott occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Peter's church, of which denomination she was an active member in life, Rev. Mr. Radcliff conducting the solemn and impressive service and preaching a brief sermon. The choir, under the leadership of Mrs. E. K. Alden, rendered some very sweet music.

The church was crowded by friends of the deceased and the bereaved family, and much heartfelt sympathy was expressed for the sorrowing ones, particularly the bereaved husband and little daughter, who was so completely prostrated with grief as to be unable to attend the funeral of her mother and remained at home in the care of her grandfather.

After the services at the church the long procession of carriages and vehicles took up their march to the north side cemetery, where the concluding services were held and the earthly remains of a true, noble christian woman were laid away to peacefully rest until the resurrection morn.

The pall bearers were Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Theodore A. Sloane, J. W. O. Snyder, J. D. Fee, G. T. Nash and Charles Ruter, and the floral offerings from friends of the departed were numerous and beautiful, attesting the love and esteem in which they held her whose bier the lovely blossoms were intended to decorate.

To Holders of School Bonds.

Persons holding bonds issued by School District No. 1, Pueblo county, Colorado, dated September 1, 1875, and numbered from 1 to 60, are hereby notified and requested to present such bonds at once

Half rates to
Rio Grande a
Account, July 4
Fe avenue Eigh
depot.

The reclining
cars on The Gr
will fill your n
memory never
the Rock Islan
July 5th and 6th

Parties desirin
can obtain estim
for the work by

tf

If you have a
to trade for a fi
with all modern
block off street c
city.

St. Pa
via the Great R
ets on sale June
City ticket office

The Royal st
nue and Orman
pleted and rea
phone 240.

Horses wanted
pasture at Cape
C. C. Campion,
Colo.

WANTED.—By
Co., 10 teams for

A very few ch
Swift building,

Have your pi
Only four dollar
cabinets until fu

The Dad
Marshall Pas
Only chance thi