public.

Persons having business with the banks, land office, county and city offices, or the courts will do well to attend to it to-day, as they will all be closed to-morrow for the purpose of observing the glorious fourth.

A gentleman who arrived from Seattle the other day says he saw Dick Burkman up there, and that Dick is now worth about $30,000. Only the other day he was offered $20,000 for an interest in some lots he owns at Seattle.

The funeral of Zoe, wife of H. C. Chilcott, who died on Tuesday night, will occur to-day (Thursday) at 2 o'clock P. M. from St. Peter's Episcopal church on Santa Fe avenue. Friends of the family are expected to attend without further notice.

Billy Wilson, the popular proprietor of the Turf restaurant, who has been visiting at his old home in Meadville, Pa., for the past six weeks, will be home to-morrow. Sam Herd is thinking of taking a vacation when Billy gets back, having been on watch night and day since his employer left.

George L. Brandow drove into a street car excavation in front of the Central block on the night of June 27th, owing to the fact that the danger light was not hung where it should have been, and lamed his horse badly and also scarred up his buggy. Marshal O'Conner instructed Mr. Brandow to present his bill to the Pueblo City Railway company for settlement, and it was sent in yesterday, amounting to $12.

Ehrlich Bros., 316 south Union avenue