officer of the club consisting of the following: John Nugent, president; Justice Maloney, secretary; T. C. Maloney, secretary.

OUT SIX HOURS—Jim Davis sure likes the treatment at the Villa de Bastile. He was released yesterday after working out a short sentence imposed by "Hizzoner" Magistrate "High Braw" Seits. He went right out on Union avenue, tanked up, started to do the "be kind to me dear public and give me something act" and landed back at 9 o'clock last night in one of Col. "Bill" Elliott's holdover aided by Jailer Jamison. He was "at liberty" just six hours.

MANDAMUS NOT TAKEN UP—On account of a change of administration, District Judge J. E. Rizer did not take up the application of the city of Pueblo for a writ of mandamus to compel the Pueblo Gas and Fuel compang to extend its mains to certain parts of the city. The city council instructed the gas company to make the extensions. The suit was filed by former City Attorney Frank R. McAliney, and the hearing on the application was set for 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

BACK TO HAVANA—It is said that bright and early Thursday morning a tall man will walk in Justice of the Peace T. C. Maloney's cigar factory. He'll take off his coat and begin to make long ones and short ones and thick ones and thin ones. The "new hand" will be the former High Brow, ex-Police Magistrate George Seits. He's one of the Tammany hall men that have sure enough landed a real job and who will have something coming every Saturday night.

REGULAR RECITAL—The regular monthly recital of the Scott School will take place this evening, and also tomorrow evening. All friends of the school are cordially invited to attend. This popular institution will give a

FLAMES DO DAMAGE AT LA CROSSE, KAS

Special to The Chieftain.

La Crosse, Kas. April 20.—The entire town of La Crosse was threatened by fire late last night when flames were discovered in the Maine Livery barn. Before the conflagration could be checked the livery stable, a large mercantile store, the opera house and two other buildings had been completely destroyed. Seventeen horses were cremated in the livery barn, attendants failing to lead the frightened animals to safety. The loss cannot be estimated at this late hour of the night. La Crosse is on the Missouri Pacific railway about 300 miles east of Pueblo.
