SSEMER

reau at Regular Rates.

UNLIKE OOM DAYS

s Are Making Hum With nents.

ing is being cleared away from hern avenue, more brick and lum- is being piled just to the west e the new Ritchey building is be- ng to assume proportions. This ing is to be a two story business ing, the first floor to be a store and the second floor will be cut to rooms. Two more business ings on west Northern avenue are being planned.

er on the east side of the viaduct, work of improvement is also going . H. Roitz is just completing a two story brick, modern home on ind avenue, and is contemplating erection of a two story business ing on his new property at 219 Northern avenue.

nerous other smaller residences lso in progress of construction. improvement boom is not con- to buildings, but extends to the s and yards, and everyone in Bes- r, whether a property owner or not to be trying to make the steel s suburb a better place to live in. over the south side what few t houses there were a few weeks are filling up and the real estate was seen on the avenue acting queerly and the officer, thinking that he was under the influence of liquor, ordered him to leave the avenue and go home. When he appeared against last night he was placed under arrest and was found to display signs of insanity. No information was received from him, so it is not known whether he has relatives in the city. It is probable that an investigation of his case will be made today or tomorrow.

Davies Dies in Arkansas

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of B. W. Martin Davies, a former old-time resident of Bessemer, in his late home in Rogers, Ark. Death occurred at an early hour yesterday morning. The remains will arrive in the city tomorrow and will be taken in charge by McMahon & Coller. The funeral will be held from the Northern Avenue Methodist church at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Interment will be made beside his late wife in the family lot in Riverview cemetery.

Deceased was well known in Bessemer, having been connected with the steel works for many years. During his residence in this city he lived at 1433 Spruce street. He is survived by six sons, all of whom are residents of this city. They are Henry E., George M., Frank B., James R., William and Charles W.

Dog Causes Owner to Walk

An amusing incident occurred on a Bessemer car last night which caused a merry titter among the passengers. At the corner of Mesa and Evans avenue three passengers started to board the car. They were a man, his wife Besesmer set everything. Th first with pave kinds of improv other things. home of heirs weeks ago Mr notified that by she had fallen at $75,000.

But now con that Max Lon the steel works even larger lega lars could not nickel left the the glad tiding of his fortune Longnickel and sides in Argen stood, will toge 000. Mr. Longn from which pl will leave for present at the of a relative. Longnickel and

HAND

Ever since t Minnequa plant tor Johnson of has been havin to him that a the gates of t with bills to bold type how buying goods a and several oth percentage of t nequa plant ar lish, much les are a great ma kind of adve quently thousa thrown to the deposited them