SEMER

CLASSIFIED ADS.
Taken at Bureau at Regular Rates.

RESTS
TH CUTTING

he men offered resistance rested. Stavich was given Fabrizio's vehicle, while aken to Stanco's box and the city jail in the patrol one of the men wanted on as now escaped arrest and believe that they will get w days. All will be held results of Azman's injur- resting well last night, ending physicians at St. ital now have hopes for However the wounds in are ugly ones, and his re- depend on his condition in days.

TION
OPOLITAN

pproach of cooler weather e of a desire on the part men to go to the isthmus, re said to be good and the ng is comparatively low. majority of the workmen ny Colorado with smaller re are a certain class of like adventure, and who ge, who will leave for the Avenue M. E. church at 2:30. Rev. L. M. Potashinsky conducted the services, music being furnished by the church choir. The church was filled with friends and acquaintances of the deceased.

The many floral tributes in evidence bespoke of the high esteem and love in which the deceased was held by all who knew him. The floral bearers were: Myrtle Ellsworth, Ruth McElwain, Dora Mitchell, Gertrude McElwain. The pall bearers were the trustees of the church, William Randall, A. H. Wohltemuth, R. A. Scott, A. H. Baker, R. R. Powell and W. D. Kohler.

Interment was made in Riverview cemetery in the family lot by the side of his wife, who died some two years ago.

Will Give Pastor Big Reception

The ladies' circle of the Northern avenue M. E. church, have planned an informal reception for Rev. and Mrs. Potashinsky in the church parlors at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon. Rev. Potashinsky tendered his resignation as pastor of the church a few weeks ago, and the reception is given as a testimonial of the regard in which he and his wife are held by the members of the congregation. Rev. Potashinsky will not receive his transfer until the coming conference.

Pioneer Dies

Hugh Shearn, aged 68 years, and who

Malt is tonic. B
But be Beer that
That is

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
See that the cork or crown is bran

Sch