of the absence of wreck-Williamson was stand-
latform when the acci-
and was painfully hurt ught to himself. Young
ckly given all the com-
nd there was rejoicing
been killed. The people seemed to have gotten ely a scratch and were themselves when they
upon the body of Mrs.
roved to be quite dead.
not pinned down but
hed.
to bed in lower berth
car Cimarron and was
posite the windows of d in her night robe. It determine exactly how
It is possible that by
as thrown through the
nay have tried to crawl
after the car turned
ught by the downward
car. The family home
at Silverton but Mr.
is an attorney, is now
Cripple Creek district.
ken back to Salida and
taken through Pueblo

reck was sent to divi-
s in this city as speed-nd a relief train was da with surgeons from ospital at that place.

Ezra Kendall is a prominent member of Primrose & West's big minstrel organization, who will be seen at the Grand for a limited engagement of one night. Mr. Kendall will be remembered for his performance in his own play "The Pair of Kids." It is anticipated that he will more than duplicate his success in this new field to him.

DIED.

ANDERSON—Sunday, October 3, 1897, at 1325 Iolet avenue, Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, aged 72 years.

Funeral from the above address promptly at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Interment at St. Charles cemetery.

RAFFERTY—Sunday, October 3, 1897, at his home, 1411 Furnace street, Patrick Rafferty, aged 46 years.

Funeral announcement later.

Official facsimile of Medal Awarded

DR. PRICE'S
CREAM BAKING POWDER

P

First Presby
Oc

1. Organ. In
of Loheng
Mr.
2. Reading, F
.....
Mi
3. Baritone s
ert Am I.
Mr
4. Whistling
a. Bird so
b. Gavott
non ...
Mrs. L
5. Violin solo
.....
Miss Jo
6. Soprana
Down the
.....
Miss
7. Whistling
a. Last Ro
b. El Capi
Mrs. Le