Funeral announcement later.

One of the important announcements of the beginning of the year is that of shots from his gun hit me in the neck.

I ducked as if I had taken the count and when he came up to get me I gave him the laugh.

"Jack Gray, who boasts of one time carrying off the gun club trophy, also took a shot at me, and I am sorry to say that one of the prides of the south side dairy paid the penalty of his error.

"I am not sure that they did not recognize me, or that they were trying to get even with me for allowing the playful winds of today. But I noticed the ladies came out in numbers today, and as long as they throng the streets I reckon no one can complain of the atmospheric conditions.

"I've got my neck wrapped up tonight in memory of Alderman Reger, and am chewing lozengers for a sore throat, but I am going to get off tomorrow for it will be another one of those nice warm days, and when the
