PLEADS NOT GUILTY—George Roberts, charged with burglarizing the store of Max Berkovitch, was arraigned before Justice Corson yesterday afternoon when he pleaded not guilty. He was held for a preliminary examination.

MARRIAGE LICENSES—The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: Juan Silva and Rafelita Rendore, both of Pueblo; Adrian Gonzalez and Marian Rendore, both of Pueblo; Howard Emerson and Myrtle Williams, both of Pueblo.

CHILD SCALDED—The infant daughter of Dominick Bushua, 1723 east Abriendo avenue, was accidentally burned yesterday by the overturning of a vessel containing hot water. The face and hands of the child were badly scalded although the burns are not considered serious.

CHANGE IN TIME—The board of county commissioners yesterday decided that in the future regular meetings will be held Mondays and Thursdays of each week instead of Tuesdays and Fridays. A meeting was held yesterday morning but only routine business was transacted.

JOINT INSTALLATION — Pueblo lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F. and Silver Star lodge, No. 2, Daughters of Rebekah will hold a joint installation of officers tonight at Odd Fellows hall and a big time is expected. Several visiting Odd Fellows are expected and besides the regular installation exercises a social time will be held.

LION TAMER IMPROVED—Captain Kelly, professor of lions at the Zoo on north Main street, who was badly lacerated as the result of a fight with Caesar Wallace, an untamable beast, last Saturday night, is rapidly recovering and has resumed the act as though nothing had happened. Wallace is still in an ugly mood and appears to have acquired a taste for human blood from his last sample.

Paderewski Will Not Play Here

The Pueblo engagement of Ignace Paderewski has been cancelled and the music lovers will have no opportunity of seeing he of the long hair and nimble touch.

Frank Johnson, who was to have brought Paderewski here, decided to call off the engagement on account of the heavy guarantee and the present unsettled conditions.

The great pianist will, however, appear in Colorado Springs February 6, and Mr. Johnson expects to run a special train from Pueblo for the accommodation of Pueblo ans who are anxious enough to go that far to hear the great pianist.

Hand Is Caught in the Gearing

While working in the power house at the Minnequa plant yesterday afternoon, William Culbert, 1517 Orman avenue, an engineer, in some manner had his left hand caught in the gearing of the machinery. Both the palm and index finger were badly mangled there being several fractures.

The injured man was sent to the Minnequa hospital and it is thought that amputation of the finger will be necessary.
