is the positive type of boy iscoverable here and there. and boys are apt to take to n life which employs their aculties, just as naturally as es to water. Charles King he son of a clergyman. He reach to a silent congregars, when he was four years ecame a noted author and Daniel Webster committeed ution of the United States oy's pocket handkerchief Macaulay would stretch out Moore's rug with a book in and a chunk of bread and he other. He became Lord the historian. Side tracked he next group we find They in all history. This side-nay be caused by various or various reasons. Pride, rejudice, ignorance.

ory's Disgraced Pages

has many disgraced pages ad stories of side tracked xamples. How they used to nes Watts, when he wanted mechanical impulses. His ed him a lazy boy, useless, hing, but a careful watching t's tea kettle was the clew vention of the great steam andel's father wanted him to er, and many a scolding had fellow to endure because his to music. He kept on his
, and the world listens to-grateful heart to his song.
Astor's father tried to make butcher, but the boy per-becoming a trader, a mer-d attained great success.
Angelo was a standing dis-his parents, because he in-following art. They wanted

Los Angeles.

The pall bearers at the funeral will be Mahlon Thatcher, Jr., Tom Downen, Jr., Hallett Gallup, Robert Gast and Arthur O'Brien.

Frank Capers, Jr., C. K. Fletcher, W. W. Eaton and Boone Gallup will act as flower bearers.

Interment will be at Roselawn.

Funeral Notices

The remains of Hosea Cook were forwarded last evening by Davis and Vories to Colorado Springs, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Rose Cook.

Funeral services over the remains of the late James W. Jordan, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from the McCarthy funeral chapel and from Bethel Baptist church at 3. Rev. Davis assisted by Rev. Holmes and Rev. Hardy, conducted the services. Ashby Lodge & Rising Sun lodge A. F. & A. M. attended the services as did the I. O. O. F. Interment was in Roselawn cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Jensenius Bergh, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the McCarthy funeral chapel. Mr. Bergh was a member of Camp 20 Woodmen of the World and of the Order of Railway Employes. Interment will be in Roselawn cemetery.

The funeral of the late Joseph Krutka, will take place this morning from the late residence, 214 Plum street at 9 and from St. Anthony's church at 9:30. Interment will be in Roselawn under direction of McCarthy.

The remains of the late Lewis F. Miller, were forwarded from the McCarthy parlors yesterday to Eads, Colo., accompanied by Prof. H. L. Miller. Interment will take place in the family

PA

Which has been immo known through

A Tale of

Magnificen
Beau
T

SPECIAL M

Two O Always
Reel Sh

ADMISSIO