dalia, Mo., and on the package he wrote: "Rush!" "Don't Crush!" "Value $50.00." Mr. Langley is the head of the Langley grocery firm of Pueblo. The gold brick will be sent as a wedding present, as his friends say Mr. Langley has gone to Sedalia to bring home a bride.

Life and Character of Dow." Everyone is given a cordial invitation to attend.

IMPROVING SERVICE—The Denver and Rio Grande railroad is preparing to inaugurate a new train service on the La Veta branch of that road. Officials of the line, after careful investigation, have found that the increased traffic on that part of the road demands better service and a supplement to the time card just published will be issued in a short time.

FORMER CITIZEN DIES—William H. Fawcett for many years a resident of Pueblo died at his home in Snyder, Okla., March 8, 1905, according to word just received in this city. The deceased was born in Damascusville, O., Sept. 17, 1842. He left Pueblo in 1901 going to Oklahoma where he has been engaged in farming and real estate business. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Elmer J. and Clyde H. Fawcett.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Nettie Gleason will take place from the family home, corner of Prairie and Adams avenues, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The services will be conducted by Rev. A. E. Holt. Interment Riverview.

DON'T KEEP HOUSE
Without "Pride o' Rockies" flour.

A sure success the
PUEBLO CHIEFTAIN CIGAR