PROSTRATED OVER ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF LA JUNTA YOUTH

Special to The Chieftain.

La Junta, March 12.—After repeated efforts relatives here of Will Bradish, the young man who was accidentally killed yesterday morning while out hunting, succeeded today in locating J. P. Bradish, the father of the unfortunate man. He was reached at Hot Springs, Ark., and is now on his way to this city. No arrangements will be made for the funeral until his arrival.

G. S. Woodward, trainmaster of the western division of the Santa Fe railroad, who accidentally shot the young man when he saw a duck, is prostrated over the sad affair as are all the trainmen who were in the party that the man who went as pilot for them on the merry hunt should have met such a heartrending death.
