designs.

Very durable. With leather pr special price becomes more att

as stolen
of the
on South
ng when
window
siderable
near the
eets yes-
er to the
ter iden-
clew to

NS—Jus-
turned to
after a latives in
will re-
g his ab-
as trans-

the slipp-
ne boiler,
machinist,
ocal round
Tuesday
m in the
is home.

LS

s, of Den-
yesterday
were met
Mrs. Alva

te, of the
me on the

passenger
performing
ket Agent
during the ania where
th of his

nd Keller,
positions
l company
ty for 15
onday with

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Brana man was held from McMahon and Collier's parlors at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, the services being conducted by the members of the Christian Science church. The funeral was largely attended, the deceased having been very popular among a large circle of friends. There was a profusion of floral tributes. The pall bearers were: Ray Willis, James Burns, A. McGovern, Lew Allison, Ray Meyers and Herbert Dicks. Interment in Roselawn.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Peterson was held from McMahon and Collier's parlors at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and from the Routt Avenue Swedish church at 10:30. Rev. Peterson conducting the services. The funeral was largely attended and there were many floral tributes. The services were under the auspices of the Elks and Masonic lodges, members of both fraternities acting as pallbearers. The interment was in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

The funeral of A. F. Vahn will be held from Linkin's chapel at 10 o'clock this morning. Interment in Roselawn.

The remains of John W. Tully were forwarded from McCarthy's parlors to Hiawatha, Kan., yesterday accompanied by the brother-in-law C. A. McCoy. The interment will take place in that city.

The remains of Joseph Anenick, who was killed at Leadville Tuesday, will arrive in Pueblo today and be removed to McCarthy's parlors. Funeral announcement later.

MARRIED

SHEPHERD-PHILLEO — Wednesday, Jan. 17, 1906, at the home of C. C. McNutt, 214 Jackson, Eleanor B. Shepherd and George W. Phillieo, both of Pueblo, Rev. J. L. Weaver officiating.

GATEWOOD-HARRIS — Wednesday, Jan. 17, 1906, at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. J. L. Weaver, 307 west Tenth street, Bessie Gatewood of Deadwood, S. D., and Charles O. Harris of Denver.

Postmis
M

Beulah, Jan.
send, the wido
send, has bee
of Beulah, to f
the death of
several applic

Local

For 24 hours

Temperature
Relative humi
Dew point ..
Direction of Velocity of
State of weat
Normal tem
degrees.
Mean temp
grees.
Variation in 20 degrees w
Maximum
at 2:15 p. m.
Minimum t
midnight.
Maximum
west, at 5:15
L
Obs

TRNGCK—W
the family
Emil Trng
and Mrs. J Remains at
nouncement

HOW TO

One who is
will notice t
fore the att
meal times
A dose of C
Liver Table
toms appear
They are for