o so far locate his trail. Descrip- ions have been sent out for some time rom Minnesota, and absolutely noth- ng has been heard from him. The ase has all the ear marks of being baffling police mystery. It is hoped hat faint clews they have may bring bout the knowledge of Mr. Sterm's ate.

Gordon's Arrest Hourly Expected

Evidence to further support the be- lef that Frank ("Bay") Gordon will be aptured now seems assured. Much vidence was gathered yesterday to rove the accuracy of the clew that ordon is just across the Arizona line n Old Mexico.

Many telegrams were sent yesterday. reply from a man that has started rom Bisbee is expected tomorrow. If t is favorable and the man being so losely pursued is Gordon a leading po- ice official of this city will start for he southwest Thursday night.

The police department has done good vork on this case in view of the ungled case that was turned over to hem. Evidence is also at hand to rove positively that Gordon was not ithin 800 miles of Bartlesville, Okla., t the time the sheriff's officers had heir only "red hot clew" on the miss- ng rancher. This information was run own and proven to be ridiculous by he police.

It is also known that Gordon be- eved himself in the clear and made o attempt at a getaway until a month go. This was at the time when let- ers were written by officials at Rye o Bartlesville. Then Gordon began his rail to the territories and thence into old Mexico. It is expected that some- hing definite will be known either to- norrow night or Friday.
