Mrs. Brayton Dies of Heart Failure

Mrs. Rebecca Brayton, wife of E. Brayton, the real estate broker, died at her home, 1209 east Seventh street, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Brayton was 65 years old and had lived in Pueblo since 1879, having come to this city from Missouri. She assisted in the organization of the Ladies' Benevolent union and she was also prominent in church circles.

Mrs. Brayton was reading a letter from her daughter, who lives in Philadelphia, when she was seized with a fainting spell, in which she died. Death was due to an affection of the heart, caused by an attack of la grippe.

She is survived by her husband and four children, all grown. Arrangements for the funeral will not be made until it is learned when her children will be able to arrive in this city to attend the funeral. Mrs. Brayton was a member of the First Methodist church
