long service with The Chieftain Mr. Nelson has been faithful and his work and his personality have combined to win for himself and for The Chieftain many warm friends. With him go best wishes for his success. As city editor of The Chieftain it has fallen to the lot of Mr. Nelson to write that sprightly daily message under the caption of "Mike, the Duck." It therefore remained when Mr. Nelson announced his purpose to change to the Star-Journal for The Chieftain to find another "bird" to take the roost of "Mike, the Duck," as has been customary when Mr. Nelson in the years of his work was taking a vacation or disabled by illness. the roost has been supplied and while Mr. Nelson goes from The Chieftain, "Mike, the Duck," remains.
