ndition of our
cashier.

is there in the

t me see the

handed him,
ate office. In t with a check
onal check for nakes." Said

I will give
' and he tore
rous due bills.
them keep so.
noney. Here-
private funds.
eled."
s for this little
nk, and every proceeded to
se he did not
er at that par-
bia Bulletin.

---

ark.

direction hunting.

All the guests from the Antlers went to North creek canon fishing, spending the day with a picnic dinner, the major honoring them with his presence. They report a lively time, and pronounce it the best of the season.

Sunday Rev. Mr. Wright supplied the pulpit of the Beulah church, and also held a service at the Antlers on Sunday evening, with which all were much pleased, and on Tuesday he was called to conduct the funeral service of Mr. Charles Burr, who died on Sunday at the residence of Mr. Oliver Boggs, and was buried in the Beulah cemetery. There was quite a full attendance at the funeral service and burial.

Wednesday's arrivals by the Judge's hack: Mr. Vidal's mother and Mr. Van Dorn; Mr. Cransky, Samuel Townsend, and Mrs. Mallaby returned and were glad to reach a cooler climate.

Nettie Valentine is stopping with

REA

The choices
al

Stanto

100