Upon Fort Sumter
ed—Some Change in Open Meetings by
ler Post Will Meet
s on Sunday.

l attendance of old
ting of Upton post
ty hall last night.
y-second annual en-
Department of Col-
G. A. R. were disements were made
ce of Memorial
g resolutions were firing upon Fort

ening gun of the ebellion. which re-
terans of the 'boys rganization of the Republic; and April 12, 1901, will lversary of that
be properly come, ommander H. M. ncil of administra-
nt of Colorado and
e requested to fix
nty-second annual Department at Pu-
and 12, 1901; and

Friday, April 12,
the proper com-
firing upon Fort

gements made by anizations of the

NONE SO GOOD.

SORROWING FRIENDS.

Attend the Funeral of the Late Mrs. S. J. Burris.

All that was mortal of Mrs. S. J. Burris was consigned to its last resting place yesterday afternoon attended by a large following of sorrowing friends. Services were held at the family residence, 702 west Tenth street, conducted by Rev. Thomas Stephenson and music was rendered by the Baptist church choir composed of Misses Groff and Weed, W. H. Miller and W. R. McFarren. Among the numerous floral pieces were some of the most exquisite offerings ever seen in Pueblo. Pallbearers were Andrew B. Baldwin, Thomas H. Devine, C. E. Cherrington, M. Studzinski, B. W. Cole and D. R. Greene, Elks, of which organization Mr. Burris is a member, attended in a body. The interment was at Riverview.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

GOING WEST—Several carloads of Italian laborers passed through the city yesterday bound for Crested Butte.

TEMPLE SERVICES—Temple Emanuel will hold services tonight at 7:30 p. m. Unity church, Seventh and Santa

$13.50 Suits
$15.00 Suits
$16.50 Suits
$18.00 Suits

These same

WE A

and are sellin
doing better f
sell in bulk. I consequently Goods of us.
hard times.

A. E

HARTLEY-