"WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES."

A most excellent attraction is announced for the Grand on tomorrow night. It is a rollicking, amusing farcical comedy, and has the breezy title, "What Happened to Jones," which in itself brings a smile to one's face. The play is said to be very funny indeed, and is given by a most excellent company, comprising, as it does, several noted comedians and some very talented and beautiful young women. The bright particular star is Harry Corson Clarke. He is known to be extremely original in the role, and has an effective way of bringing out the good points in a manner which simply convulses an audience. So much has been said in all parts of the country in praise of the star and play, that the theater will undoubtedly be filled with a representative audience.

Seats on sale this morning. Prices 25, 50, 75 cents and $1.00.
