

police were unable to work up a case sufficiently strong enough to warrant holding him for the crime.

That he is a member of a gang that has been operating in all sections of the city is the opinion of the police as the work of stealing and melting the brass is too stupendous a task for any one man, say the officers.

DIED

CANTRALL—John P., aged 73, yesterday at a local hospital. Mr. Cantrall lived at 2120 east Evans avenue, and has lived in Pueblo since 1882. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. J. B. Keely and Mrs. David Ross of this city, and two sons E. C. Cantrall and Rentley Cantrall of Cripple Creek. He was a member of A. F. & A. M. No. 17. The remains are at the Whiton parlors and the funeral will be announced later.

COMEZ—Lorenzo, age 67 years, died at a local hospital last night following a long illness. The body was removed to the McCarthy undertaking parlors. Funeral announcement will be made later.

CHEESE—CHEESE—CHEESE

We will cut the big Cheese today. There are still a few pounds left. Order today. CROUCH BROS., North Main street.