

as many prospective recruits as possible for the recruiting officer to line. This will be of considerable importance, it is believed, because it is felt that the recruiting offices are located in any but the larger towns and there may be many in smaller towns who would like to become members of Uncle Sam's sea forces.

HER AND SON FACE EACH OTHER AT THE GOLF CLUB

Her and son faced each other in finals for the Shea cup, on the course of the Pueblo Golf club when Dr. W. Varley working his way into the finals discovered that his opponent was "Bill" Varley, his son. The final match consisted of a 36-hole match and at the end of 27 holes last night, Bill was leading five holes up with nine to play.

The ladies' tournament for the Mitchell trophy will start on Sunday, September 15. The play in this event will be watched with a great deal of interest by the golfers as the competition for the cup will be keen. The tournament will be holes up, handicapped and those entered are Jehle, Hinton, Carlile, Tomlinson, Dr. Varley, Duncan, Walmsley, Bill Varley, Corham, Price, Saunders, Jones, and Lewis and Dry.

The new club house which has been completed will be turned over to the board of directors during the coming week. The contractor still has a few pieces of work remaining before the club can be used but the coming week will see it entirely completed.
