Pioneer Woman Answers Call

Mrs. Rudolph Walz, for twenty-five years a resident of Pueblo county, died yesterday at the home of her son, Ernest Walz, at 1109 Palmer avenue, after a sickness of a few days' duration contracted since her arrival in the city on a visit to her son.

Mrs. Walz arrived in Pueblo, less than a week ago to pay a visit to her son. Before she had been here three days, she contracted a bad cold which soon developed into pneumonia.

She is survived by her husband, two sons, Ernest and Fred, and two daughters, Mrs. William Walter and Mrs. George Mayer. Mrs. Walz was 75 years of age.

The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from McMahon & Collier's chapeu and from the German Lutheran church at 2:30.

Interment will be in the family lot at Roselawn cemetery.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy S. Chase will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 1246 east Orman avenue, and will be under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps No. 2. The Rev. Mr. Myers, of the Minnequa Congregational church, will conduct the services. The interment will be in Mountain View.

Venerable Man Called By Death

David Craig, a well-known man in Pueblo and for years a resident of this city and father of John W. Craig of the Minnequa works, died at the home of his son yesterday north of the city.

Mr. Craig was 75 years of age and has hundreds of friends in the city who will be both surprised and pained to learn of his death.

The funeral service will be conducted in McMahon & Collier's chapel this evening at 5:45 o'clock, after which the remains will be shipped by McMahon & Collier to Joliet, Ill., for interment.

John W. Craig, the son, will accompany the remains to Joliet.

PLANT TREES—
BUY THEM AT COST

To encourage the planting of shade trees the Pueblo Real Estate exchange has purchased a fine lot of Ash and Elm trees at wholesale and will sell them at actual cost.
