

leals—

healthful.

ed to serve two important func-ver, and (2) well-balanced noure-Nuts

y, for it is made of whole wheat splendid nutrition, including the king in much of the food of the e-Nuts forms part of the daily

Reason"

and sometime the Silver Cord Will Break." and Harper Gardner sang "Abide With Me." The chapel was filled with sorrowing friends who gathered to pay their last respects. The flower bearers were Mrs. F. O. Jones and Mrs. Hamill. The pall bearers were Messrs Vess Despain, O. B. Hearts-thorn, Frank McDonnell, Harold Hey-ron, F. O. Jones and Allen Keifer. Mrs.
M. M. Sands, a daughter, went to Scott City on notice of her father's death and accompanied the remains to Pueblo.

The funeral of Nick Cardis was held yesterday.

The funeral of Iso Vukelich was held yesterday morning at 11 a. m. from her late residence, 1709 Schley avenue, and at 11:30 from the Russian Orthodox church. Rev. Alex Varlasken conducted the services. Interment was in Roselawn in charge of the United Undertaking company.

The funeral of Louis Chorak was held yesterday morning from the residence of his brother, 1239 Mahern avenue, at 9 a. m. and at 9:30 a. m. from St. Mary's church. Rev. Cyril Zupan conducted the services. Interment was
in Roselawn in charge of the United
Undertaking company.

The body of Mary Elizabeth Coughlin was forwarded to Florence yesterday by the United Undertaking company accompanied by relatives. Interment will take place in that city Wednesday morning.

Sarah W. Patch died yesterday afternoon at the home of her son, Wesley Patch, 1628 west Seventeenth street. Mrs. Patch was 86 years of age, and came to this city six months ago from Ventura, Ill., to make her home with her son. The body was removed

YES—The bride and groom should be photographed. That's one thing you should not forget, as time brings many changes. Have yours made today Elite Studio for satisfactory results.

WEDDED IN PUEBLO—The marriage of Harry Arnold, clerk of the Crowley county court, of Ordway, presided over by Judge G. F. Patrick, Miss Augusta Ingram, of Paducah, Ky., was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of Judge Patrick in Pueblo yesterday afternoon. Several friends of the young couple witnessed the pretty ceremony that united the couple. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram of Paducah. Previous to going to Ordway to reside Arnold was clerk of the supreme court in New Mexico and he is well known in court circles in the southwest. Following the wedding the couple went to Ordway and from there they will drive by automo-bil to Colorado Springs and other points in the state on their honeymoon.

T. G. McCarthy, undertaking and embalmer, McCarthy block. Private automobile ambulance service. Full automobile equipment for funerals. Office telephone M. 169. Residence M. 41.

Whitton Mortuary association, undertakers; ambulance service. Board of Trade building. Phone 179; residence phone Union 1257.

United Undertaking Co., funeral directors and embalmers, 123 S. Union Ave. Private motor ambulance. Telephone Main 236. Residence phone Main 1555 and Main 1427.

Davis & Vories, undertakers, em-