popular melodies.

Sweeney and Rooney, dancers, yet so different that they are claimed as the noted attraction of the bill. One noted critic remarked that although their dancing was old, they put it on so differently that they were the pit of the bill.

The Bimbo sisters, direct from the Imperial opera house, St. Petersburg, are scheduled for original and characteristic Siberian Russian and Circassian dances. This act promises something in the nature of a sensation.

Boston, Russian circus satellite, one of the cleverest of foreign equilibrists, will be seen in his original act, featured by electric effects.

The Pantages orchestra will be heard in some new selections, and the Pantagescope completes the bill.
