day night.
was the 778 East
burglars
and drill-
gained en-
ent thru a

n, Police said, could the safe-
way store.
ical type
concrete
be "burg-

ome of the
the safe.
ectric drill
he strong-
mechan-

Dectective
the burg-
f of the
the panel
light, and n bars of ight open-selves into ope which
blishment,
hacksaw

a rear
padlock
as locked

516 West
of the burglary
when he

modus op-
re Thurs-
Colorado
as practi-

st Sunday
Safeway

VITAL STATISTICS

Funerals

DAVIS MORTUARY
Masonic Temple
Broadway at Evans Avenue

SHOUSE—George H., local hospital Friday, April 7. Husband of Susan F. Shouse of family home, 1006 East Orman avenue; father of Roy R. Shouse of Pueblo; grandfather of Mrs. Ruth Evans of Hollywood, Calif.; Mrs. Alma Hanselman of Los Angeles; Katherine Mae and Mary Beth Shouse of Pueblo; great grandfather of two. Member of Calvary Baptist church and Retired Men's club of C. F. & I. Arrangements later.

WELSCH—Mrs. Tillie Welsch at hospital, Friday, April 7. Mother of Burryl Welsch; mother-in-law of Mrs. B. L. Welsch; sister of William Marple. Arrangements later.

BROOKS—Mrs. William Anna Brooks services 3:30 p. m. Monday, Davis mortuary chapel.

THE JONES MORTUARY
Routt at Summitt

ROHDEN, Mrs. Rosie, 1226 East Orman avenue. Member of the Church of God in Christ. Announcement of service later.

GEORGE F. McCARTHY FUNERAL HOME

STARK, John Smith, services Monday, 8:30 a. m., our chapel; 9 a. m., St. Francis Xavier church