PCCLD Executive Director Sheri Baca speaks during the Building Community Together Capital Campaign to help fund the Barkman and Lucero libraries. The campaign launched on July 17 at the Patrick A. Lucero Library.

BUILDING COMMUNITY TOGETHER

Library district launches $2 million capital campaign

The Pueblo City-County Library District and Pueblo Library Foundation will launch a $2 million capital campaign to fund renovations for two of the district's branch libraries. A campaign announcement is scheduled for 10 a.m., Wednesday, July 17 at the Lucero Library, located at 1315 E. 7th St.

The Building Community Together Capital Campaign is an intensive fundraising effort needed to complete the expansion and renovation of the Frank and Marie Barkman and the Patrick A. Lucero libraries. These two library facilities will undergo improvement efforts that will enhance each location's capacity to grow its services to meet the ever-changing needs of Pueblo's children, teens, families and adults.

The Barkman Library has served the Belmont neighborhood and northern Pueblo for more than 30 years. The ongoing renovation and expansion of the Barkman improves the interior and exterior of the branch while adding an additional 2,643 square feet onto the building. More than 1.6 million visitors have come through its doors during the past 11 years alone.

Overall cost of the renovations is more than $8.9 million; the price tag includes design, construction, furniture, fixtures and equipment. Renovations will primarily focus on refurbishing, and expanding the interior of the buildings along with exterior site work. Currently, more than $525,000 has been raised through of public and private funding.

LUCERO LIBRARY RENOVATION

Lucero Library's last day of service is August 3

Change is coming to the Patrick A. Lucero Library branch. On Saturday, Aug. 3, Lucero Library will close to the public in preparation for renovations to begin.

Since opening to the public in December of 2014, the Lucero Library has welcomed more than a million visitors. This small branch library is heavily used by the community and has quickly outgrown its footprint.

Renovation plans include:

- Expanded public meeting room
- Improved front entrance
- Larger spaces for children, teens
- New children's discovery area
- New Maker Space
- New audio/visual studio
- Refreshed book collection

An expanded public meeting room and revamped front entrance will increase the branch's footprint to 10,000 square feet, enhancing the branch's capacity to grow its services to meet the ever-changing needs of Pueblo's children, teens, families and adults.

Lucero Library will remain closed during the renovations, however watch for library services to open at El Centro Del Quinto Sol in the fall. Construction is expected to be completed in 2025. The public is encouraged to visit PCCLD's other locations.

Rendering of Lucero's new exterior.

Children's area.

Leading the renovation of Lucero Library are HBM Architects and Interior Designers of Cleveland, Ohio. Pueblo's own H. W. Houston Construction is charged with managing construction. HBM Architects, along with Denver-based Anderson Mason Dale (AMD), led renovations to the Robert Hoag Rawlings Public Library and to the nearly completed Barkman Library.

Thank you for your patience during renovations. These big changes will make Lucero Library bigger and better for our East side neighbors.
