ing the month for the next month's work.

The lodge will remove into its new quarters in the Amherst building about December 1 and are arranging to have them furnished in a style befitting one of the most prosperous lodges in the state.

Worsnop Clough

Worsnop Clough, 65 years a letter carrier and for 25 years a resident of Pueblo, died suddenly at his home, 726 Center street, yesterday evening. Mr. Clough had worked as usual yesterday and had not complained of feeling ill. Shortly after eating supper he became suddenly ill and died in a few moments.

He was a member of the mail carrier's association, Pueblo lodge No. 17, A. F. & A. M., and of Ada chapter, Order of Eastern Star. The funeral will be held Monday at 2 o'clock from the late residence and at 2:30 o'clock from the First Baptist church. Interment will be in Roselawn.
