

A cordial invitation is one to attend.

No. 11 Tribe of Ben tonight in Carpenters' Union avenue. Initia-of the Minnequa and s of the Mothers' con- to attend the meeting summer park when Prof. will make an address.

s of division No. 1, sity of St. Paul M. E. n enjoyable ice cream church lawn last evening patronized.

ocial union of the Lake church will meet this e church basement. Im- s is to come up at this to come.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. July 10, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. George ey of Bent, N. M., July ary's hospital a daugh- ley was formerly Miss aughter of Mr. and Mrs. his city.

ill be interested in the e daughter to Mr. and Quillen last week in o. Mrs. Quillen will as Miss Harriet Jans- married in Pueblo over or several years she had dressmaking department s stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank t River street, a boy,

Whiton Mortuary association, un- dertakers; ambulance service. Board of Trade building. Phone 179; resi- dence 'phone Union 1257.

Davis & Vories, undertakers, em- balmers, Eighth and Main. Phone Main 185, residence Phone Main 185. Private ambulance.

United Undertaking Co., successors to McMahon & Collier, undertakers and embalmers, 123 S. Union Ave., 'phone 226; res. 'phone Main 1565. Pri- vate ambulance.

DIED

MAY—James, C., age 68 died at the home of his son, Charles C. May, 1526 west Seventeenth street, yester- day after an illness of more than two years. Mr. May was well known in Colorado, having lived a number of years in Canon City and Florence. He came here last December to see if the change would not help his con- dition but all was in vain. He was a member of the K. P. lodge at Plainville, Texas. He leaves his wife and son of this city, and three broth- ers, Robert May of London, England, Henry May of Madisonville, Tex., and Charles May of New Zealand. The remains are being cared for by the United Undertaking company and the funeral will be held Thursday morning from the residence at 9:00 o'clock. The Rev. O. L. Orton as- sisted by Rev. F. A. Hatch will have charge of the service. The body will then be sent to Canon City accom- panied by the family for burial.

COROK—Mary, age 8 months, died at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Steve Corok, 1233 Mahren avenue yesterday. The funeral was held from the residence at 1:30 and 2:00 o'clock from St. Mary's church. The Rev. Father Cyril officiated. Inter- ment was in Rose Lawn in charge of the United Undertaking Co.

morning from a two weeks' through the south and east.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses and dau- Mildred, of Trinidad are visiting M. J. Cobb, 1011 Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Critcher we Denver yesterday to attend the convention and attend to business ters.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harries after ing the Elks' reunion in Denver visit with Mrs. Harries' folks at M. Iowa.

Leo McCarney of Gary, Ind. spending his vacation with Mr. Mrs. John McCarney. He former- sided here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis and Pauline Davis motored to Denver terday where they will attend the convention.

Miss Lillian Johnson arrived S from San Diego, Cal., to spend summer with her mother, Mrs. M. Johnson.

Mrs. John Nogle and daughter etto have returned from Kansas Mo., where they visited for the three months.

Mrs. J. E. Whitley and father, Newman of El Paso, Tex., will Denver today to witness the Elk- ades today and tomorrow.

How You Can Remove Every Trace of

(Toilet Talks)

A stiff paste made with some dered delatone and water and s on a hairy surface about 2 m will, when removed, take every of hair with it. The skin should ing delatone. No harm can result this treatment, but be sure it is tons you eat and you will not b appointed.