which worked wonders for her health. They always do. Try them. Only 25c at Baldwin's Drug Store.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The remains of the late Kline W. Craft were brought to this city yesterday over the Colorado & Southern from Martin, Texas, accompanied by Mrs Craft. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the undertaking rooms in the Board of Trade building. Rev. R. A. Chase will conduct the services at which members of the Masonic, Elks and Maccabees lodges will be in attendance. Masonic rites will be observed at the grave; the interment to be in Mountain View.

Kline W. Craft was born in Cortland, Ohio, 47 years ago on the 29th of last January. He spent his early life at the place of his birth, but received his education in Oberlin college, from which he was graduated. He was married in Ohio about 24 years ago. He came to Pueblo with his family twelve years ago, and entered with his eldest brother, W. A. Craft, the fish and oyster business. After about three years of this enterprise, deceased became engaged with the Andrews Packing company with which he remained until the company's dissolution, after which Mr. Craft was employed by the Hammond Packing company in the service of which he remained until last December when, on account of failing health, he retired and later went to Texas. He leaves a wife and six children, Herbert, Lee, Maxwell, Clay, Mary and Frances. His brother, W. A. Craft and his cousin,