SUBPOENAS—Subpoenas for the grand and petit juries are being served by G. M. Greene, clerk of United States district and circuit courts. As usual they are sent out by registered letter and the looks of astonishment and disgust that overspread the countenances of citizens as they take them out of the post-offices is really refreshing.

ENTERTAINED—Miss Agnes Langdon entertained a few of her young friends at her home, 912 west Thirteenth street, last night, in honor of her friends, Misses Lizzie and Mamie McCarthy, who leave next Sunday for a visit in Chicago. The guests enjoyed a number of piano selections by the hostess and several songs by Miss Janetina McDonald and Henry McCarthy. Mrs. Langdon served delicious refreshments.

TROUBLES ENDED—Funeral services of the late Frederick Crandall who committed suicide by taking morphine Saturday were held yesterday afternoon, the funeral taking place from the corner of D street and Union avenue. Rev. H. G. Nicholson officiated. The wife and son of the deceased arrived from Berwind, Colo., to attend the funeral. The aged wife was very much affected by her husband's untimely end.

LORETTO FAIR—It is now decided that the fair of Loretto academy will open on April 17. As yet the ladies in charge have not decided upon any location but it will be in the business section of the city and promises to be more successful than any ever given before by ladies interested in the welfare of the school. A good meeting was held at the academy yesterday afternoon and another meeting will be held next Sunday at the same place at 4 p. m.
