use

xt

day,

sday,

'sday

Hida of Tokyo, Japan; Hachiro Shirato of Hirasaki, Japan, and Teri Orikasa of Mariaka, Japan.

We sell the best of everything that burns. We buy sacks. The Iron City Fuel Co., phone 240.

DIED.

MAZE—Wednesday, Jan. 19, 1910, William Maze, aged 55, at his residence, 1432 east Abriendo avenue. The remains were removed to the McMahon & Collier mortuary. The arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

FLETCHER—Tuesday, Jan. 18, 1910, at the family home, 1910 Grand avenue, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Fletcher. The funeral was held from Davis & Vories' chapel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and services were private. Interment was at Roselawn.

Funeral Notices.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Cruz was held from the chapel of the T. G. McCarthy mortuary at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. Services were also solemnized from the Holy Family church at 10:30 o'clock. Interment was in the family plot at St. Charles cemetery.

The remains of Mrs. Ann Mahoney were sent by the T. G. McCarthy mortuary to Leicester, N. Y., yesterday noon, accompanied by the aged hus-

Feather Cake. Oyster Sa
Prize Cake. Merry W

NOTICE

As I am quitting business on 27, 1910, all work must be ca
and all bills settled before that
F. T. BRI
207 N. Main

PERSONALS

Miss Ruth Kearney, who h
very ill at the home of her siste
O. J. Hofman, is improving.

Mrs. Martha McGrew of who has been spending a fe
with Mrs. Ward Moore, leave for California.

Bishop J. C. Hartzell, the M bishop for Africa, who will pr
the St. Paul M. E. church on morning, will be the week-en
of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hartm

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Levey h turned from Denver, where th
called by the death of Mr.
father.

Judge J. H. Voorhees will lea day for Marion, Kas., to take tions in a law suit which is pe Otero county.

L. F. Cornwell returned las from a business trip to St. Loui