floats, loaded with stoves and ranges.

The Gallup Saddlery company's float showed the Gallup saddles, harness, etc.

Attractive Floats

The Clark Mineral wells float was very attratcive, showing the effects of patronizing home industries.

The Hydropathic Sanitarium float showed people receiving baths and treatment at that institution.

The Mountain Ice company had several wagons in the parade.

The gas company's float was drawn through the streets by a dozen men attired in white trousers and hats and black coats. On the float was a gas range, under which was a sign reading, "Be happy, tho' married."

The Sunville Baking company's float was attractively decorated.

Half a dozen delivery wagons represented the Table Queen Baking company's part of the parade.

The Western Union was represented by a number of messenger boys on wheels.

The Wells-Fargo Express company had one of its delivery wagons entered.

The McGovern Coal company had two wagons in the parade.

The Lithia Water Bottling company had a number of wagons in the industrial section.

This One Unique

The Coco Cola company had an electrically decorated float that was unique.

The Walter Brewing company float was beautifully decorated, being surmounted by a large electric sign.

Fred Mullet had a float in the parade showing the art of cigar making.

The Wardrobe's float was beautifully decorated.

The City Laundry's participation consisted of several laundry wagons.

The Rood Candy company's prize winning float consisted of what appeared to be a huge stick of revolving candy with several large stieks standing in an upright position.

A large dressed ham on a float was shown by the Nuckolls packing company, which attracted attention.

Emanuel Klein's newstand was pulled through the streets by several newsboys.

A large truck manufactured by the Pueblo Auto Traction company headed the Rio Grande floats, assisting in drawing them along the street.

Stilts Artists and Short

A contrast in stature that would make a Jeff and Mutt effect look like a fake, was that presented by Fred H. Wilson and Harry J. Elliott, the stilts artists, and Joe Short, page at the Congress hotel. Wilson and Elliott walked the street on stilts, carrying a Congress hotel banner, while between them walked Joe Short.

The float entered by the Arkansas Valley Railway, Light and Power company took first prize in the float division. This consisted of the electric truck, trimmed with 640 electric lights, and made to represent a ship. This

GETS CONTRACT

At a meeting of the school directors of District No. 20 held yesterday afternoon the contract for constructing the new wing of the Central high school was let to Frank Taylor. Although the exact amount called for in the contract was not made public, it is understood that the contract price was $177,000.

Work will be started at once and will be carried out along the original lines, although the plans were altered somewhat to make the amount of work to be done conform to the money available. The building will be finished by September 1, 1913.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of Amos C. Kellogg was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, 320 Broadway. J. A. Jeffers conducted the services. Mrs. W. H. Harris sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages." Interment was in the family lot in Mountainview.

The funeral of Henry Huntley will be held from McCarthy's undertaking parlors Saturday forenoon at 10 o'clock and the remains will be forwarded to Salida for interment. Mr. Huntley was a member of the Victor-Cripple Creek lodge of Elks and the Elks will have charge of the funeral services both in Pueblo and Salida.

The funeral of Mrs. L. M. Davenport was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of the United Undertaking company and at 3 o'clock from the M. E. church. Rev. Mr. Kirby conducted the services and interment was in Mountainview.

The body of Frank Koss will arrive in this city this morning from Chieftain, Okla., and will be taken to the United Undertaking company. Funeral announcement later.

THINK OF IT

Great crowds are buying shoes and dry goods at one-half regular prices with the opportunity of securing what they want FREE. The new plan is creating quite a sensation, as well it may. Nothink like it ever in Pueblo county before. The Western Mer. House, 408 Northern avenue, Bessemer.

BACH'S PASSION

Plan of seats for Bach's Passion at the Reiss Bros. Drug store.

BORN

BARNETT—Monday, April 15, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Barnett, 1201 Cedar, a son.

TAFT REPUBLICAN CLUB

The headquarters of the Taft Republican club are open every day from 10 a. m. till 10 p. m., Sundays excepted. Visitors are made welcome and to feel last night, following the wise I would feel somew

to imitate those stilts br
to be seen daily stro streets or seeking an demise in the mirky wa kansas. But that was man, and there will be
it was the nobbiest litt kind ever pulled off in the world in many a
together and pulling o
Senator McCarthy a re
shal?

"While I trotted out
again tonight, I expec

away tomorrow. Not fo for we do not seem to solar plexus on old Ki
and even if his backl
tured some time ago,
live cripple.

"If this weather kee
convert some Denverite down here a few days
they were afraid it was so they couldn't get ba day they were afraid it and they would have to well they are getting to

"Sunshine."

The Domestic S

"Hodge has a snarl
him."