Utah.
Denver manager
ed company, was
y on business conn. olorado Springs, a director there, is ys with friends in

RN

aughter was born
and Mrs. M. J.
ne street.

---

th of the City-
r Class

aken from a highly structive article in f Farm and Fire-

to realize that in years or possibly iculture has taken significance, new terest, and that it
a new class. It is w to enter any big
matter how exclu-
vention of business
hat their particular
ithout finding men
farming.
nt may properly be
The wealthy men
ollege friend for

"acrobat" had revived sufficiently to talk and speedily left the scene of his performance.

DIED

WALL—Thomas Wall, aged 65, died yesterday at a local hospital yesterday and remains are at the parlors of the Whiton Mortuary association and funeral announcement will be made later.

SNYDER—Luther M. Snyder, age 49 years, died early yesterday morning at a local hospital after a lingering illness. Deceased came here from Denver, Colo., for medical treatment. Remains were forwarded today by Davis & Vories to Denver for interment.

DAVIDSON—Charles Davidson, age 31 years, at a local hospital yesterday morning. He came here from Atlanta, Georgia, in search of health. He is survived by one brother. Remains will be forwarded by Davis & Vories to Atlanta for interment.

DONOVAN—Sylvanus Donovan, age 51 years, died yesterday at a local hospital after a brief illness. Deceased came here from Leadville, Colo., for surgical treatment. He is survived by his aged mother who was at his bedside at the time of death. Remains are at Davis & Vories.

GRONE—Sarah E., aged 83 years, wife of John Grone, died at a local hos-

Tonight

...ks of SHYLOCK, WINKLE, FAUST ...ES, with all and Four Melody Moner... George Reed, all ... fame.

All the leading ... work with song ...
WHAT TO