that they secured the liquor on Sunday and the raid on the Cafone establishment came as a result of a determination to find and put an end to the place violating the Sunday closing laws.

DIED

DAVIS—Sunday, June 5, 1910, James E. Davis, age 63. Mr. Davis had been a resident of Pueblo county for the past fifteen years, owning a large ranch five miles north of the city. He was brought to Pueblo two weeks ago, suffering from a malady of long standing. Remains are at McCarthy's. Funeral announcement later.

RAILROAD OFFICIAL DIES IN PRIVATE CAR

Richmond, Va., June 5.—Charles E.