church. On account of bad weather we had no meeting the past two weeks. It is hoped that we have a good turnout tonight. All men and women interested in the future growth of East Pueblo are urged to be present.

LUMBER SHEDS BURN—A group of corrugated iron sheds belonging to the Foley Lumber company were destroyed by fire about 11 o'clock last evening and all were destroyed, the damage amounting to about $500. The fire is thought to have been of incendiary origin. The sheds are located on Schley avenue.

PRISON SENTENCE — Pleading guilty to a charge of stealing a calf from Lees Livesay, Sam Starr was yesterday sentenced to serve from fifteen months to two years in the state penitentiary by District Judge Charles S. Essex. The calf was stolen from the ranch west of the city on November 3 and when brought into court yesterday Starr voluntarily entered a plea of guilty and asked to be given his sentence then and there. The court accommodated him.

TO ADDRESS STUDENTS—Congressman Edward F. Taylor will address the students of the Central high school this morning at 8:30 o'clock and at the Centennial high school at 10:30 o'clock. The subject of the addresses will be "The Panama Canal." The lectures will no doubt be very interesting as the congressman has just returned from a trip of inspection in the canal zone, being a member of the congressional committee.

Funeral Notices

The funeral of Daniel Jones was held yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock from West Brothers and Whitons chapel. The services were conducted by Rev. U. S. Tabor. The Temple camp number 131, W. O. W. of which the deceased was a member held their services. Mrs. U. S. Tabor and Mrs. E. T. Slaven, accompanied by Miss Gladys Little sang, "Face to Face" and "Nearer My God to Thee." The pall bearers were, Ell Miller, Fred Miller, C. H. Markert, John Papes, J. C. Bench and John Wopole. The flower bearers were John Sukle and Thomas Curran. The body was forwarded to Colildge Kansas, where interment will take place under the auspices of the Masonic lodge.

The funeral of Mrs. Josephine Strots, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence 1923 Court street.

The remains of John Castlen will be sent to Greeley today by Daivs and Vories.

Foreigner Gets Long Sentence

In the district court yesterday Ivan Bobrovsky, a foreigner who understands and speaks no English, was sentenced to serve from three to six years in the penitentiary for robbery. Bobrovsky was found guilty of having entered the office of Justice of the Peace M. E. Corson on August 17, and stealing warrants and checks amounting to $212.05. The prisoner contended that the checks and city warrants had been handed to him by a friend with a request to cash them, and he, being unfamiliar with customs here, endeavored to do as instructed. He was caught after he had left the city and found guilty by a jury in the district court.

but if it comes to the worst, there is always a way out, the same having been demonstrated here before.

"The commissioners-elect have a mighty fine chance to make good and they have a fine chance to do something for their city, the best town on earth, but far be it from me to see how they can profit by forming an alliance with the star performers of the Fugard administration. Far be it from such.

"At any rate it will only be a few days until the people will know which way the wind is blowing. They say the child is in London—we shall see.
