miles to hear his angelic renditions. Now that it has broadened into a baritone, it has lost none of its sweetness, and with its added cultivation and practice, Mr. Kavanaugh stands without a peer as a baritone soloist.

FINED FIVE DOLLARS.

Joe Osterman was this afternoon fined $5 and costs in Justice Highberger's court for disturbing the peace of Steve Boswick. The trouble was over money matters.

BURIED MONDAY.

Funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Deltando, who died from burns received, will be held Monday morning at the Board of Trade building.

MARRIED.

DURANT--CAMPBELL — Saturday, July 13, 1901, W. H. Durant and Etta M. Campbell, Justice Highberger officiating.

10,000 CIGARS FREE
On Merchants' excursion July 25.

rumored changes among officers of the company were under discussion. This, however, was not the case. It may be stated on authority of a representative of the Harriman syndicate that the new board of directors has been selected but that the names will not be made public until the annual meeting because there is no reason for publishing them now.

POLICE ARE STILL BAFFLED

Denver, July 12.—The Kinport mystery is no nearer solution than when the assault was first learned. The police are still arresting suspicious characters but nothing has yet come from the arrests.

Chief of Police Armstrong says: "We are unable to get one tangible clew and are investigating theories, but arrive no nearer the truth. Five men were arrested and taken before the captain of detectives this morning, but nothing was developed. Two of the suspects were from Globeville, two from the down-town district and the fifth has been a well-known man about town.

The first four are hobos, but each answers the description of the man who called at the Kinport house that evening for water. Mrs. Kinport says that she believes the man who committed the assault followed Jessie home, and the investigation thus far goes to show that the assault was committed in the house.

LIEUTENANT RAMSEY DEAD.

Washington, July 13.—General Chaffee, at Manila, has informed the war department of the death of Lieutenant Charles R. Ramsay, Twenty-first ing That Little Vacation be er Your Winter Supply of thracite

at per ton