Mrs. Nancy A. Puckett, aged 70, died at Topeka, Kas., yesterday, and the remains will arrive in Pueblo today. She was the aunt of Leroy Curtis and George Monical of Pueblo.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Bradfield will take place from the late residence, 96 Block L, at 10 o'clock today.

The funeral of Thomas A. Cassidy will be held this morning at 8:15 o'clock from McCarthy's undertaking parlors and from St. Francis Xavier church in Bessemer at 9. The deceased was a native of Johnstown, Pa.

The funeral of Mrs. Laura Dearborn will be held this afternoon from McCarthy's undertaking parlors at 2 p. m.

The funeral of William Maxson will be held today at 2 p. m. from Loor's chapel under the auspices of Masonic lodge, No. 17. The interment will be in Riverview.

William H. Ralston, aged 19 years, and the son of Dr. A. R. Ralston of Geneva, Ind., died in Pueblo yesterday. Short services will be conducted at McMahon & Collier's today and the remains sent to the Indiana home for interment at 11:30 a. m.

The funeral of Mrs. W. E. Selleck, who was killed in a runaway accident last Saturday on the Riverview road, was held yesterday from the home near Avondale under the auspices of Carnation circle, Women of Woodcraft. The interment was in Riverview cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes Lannie will be held from the West Bros. & Whiton chapel this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Thomas Stephenson will conduct the services. The interment will be in Riverview cemetery.