Boy is Bitten by Savage Dog

Earl Deshe, aged 12, who lives at 1322 Beulah avenue on the south side, was bitten about 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by a dog while walking with a companion, Wilbur Treadwell, on Jones street. The dog belonged to Alva A. Kuntz of 1630 east Orman, it is said. The wound, which showed four toothmarks, was cauterized by Police Surgeon Killough, and is not thought to be serious.

The boys came down town to the police department to have the wound attended to, and in the meantime Mr. Kuntz was notified of the affair. He said that the dog had already bitten several people and he had intended to kill the dog but had neglected to do so. The dog was killed later in the afternoon.
