MRS. A. L. DICKERMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

Mrs. A. L. Dickerman, No. 702 Summit avenue, died last night after several days of a severe sickness known as acute peritonitis.

Mrs. Dickerman became sick last Friday and since that time has suffered intensely. Everything possible was done to alleviate her sufferings, but it was found necesary to take her to the Pueblo hospital and, under the care of the best physicians in the city, she did not seem to improve and last night she died.

Mrs. Dickerman was very well and favorably known in this city, having been a prominent member of church circles and woman's clubs. Mrs. Dickerman was born in Johnsbury, Vt., but for the past twenty-six years has lived in this city.

Deceased was 63 years of age and is survived by numerous relatives in this city and Denver, among whom are her brothers, Ex-Governor Peabody of Canon City and Major W. F. Peabody of Denver. The children are Mrs. Carrie Lord of Denver, Mrs. Luna Telpon of Riverside, Calif., and George Dickerman of this city. Mrs. Charles Carlile, Mrs. F. W. Cooper and Mrs. M. D. T hatcher are neices of the deceased. George and Will Sweeney of this city are her nephews.

The relatives have been notified of her death and the funeral arrangements will not be made until they are heard from. Mrs. Telpon started from Riverside, Calif last evening for Pueblo. Mrs. Lord has been in the city for the past two days.
