John Dixon, who was seriously burned while attempting to rescue his wife from flames in their home on south Santa Fe avenue Saturday evening, is getting along nicely under the care of physicians and nurses at St. Mary's hospital, where he was taken with his wife soon after the accident which ended fatally for Mrs. Dixon. Mr. Dixon, it was said last night, will be able to leave the hospital in a week.

Coroner Fugard has decided that an inquest is not necessary in the case of Mrs. Dixon. The funeral of the unfortunate woman will be held Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the undertaking parlors in the McCarthy block, and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock.

---

Sound kidneys are safeguards of life. Make the kidneys healthy with Foley's Kidney Cure. Baldwin Drug Co., and New York Drug Store.