Clara at Mineral Palace park today. Go out and enjoy yourself in one of those new steel boats or a canoe.

A telephone does wonders. Why not order one today.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of Mrs. Ella E. Andrews, who died in Leadville last Thursday, was held yesterday morning at 9 o'clock from the Board of Trade undertaking parlors, Rev. Thomas Stephenson conducting the service and saying a few touching words of condolence to the daughter, sister and nephew and the friends of the deceased who were present. The interment was at Riverview cemetery, alongside the husband of deceased who died several years ago. There were many beautiful floral tributes from friends, the casket and grave being covered with flowers. The pall bearers were: J. C. Barrette, George C. Vallen, F. A. Withers and G. G. Withers.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Laura Ellen Dixon, wife of John W. Dixon, were held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the undertaking parlors in the McCarthy block. Rev. Thomas Stephenson conducted the services and interment was in Riverview.

Money saving is interesting. Bridgford's, to save money on Drugs. Seventh and Main.

NEW BURGLAR ALARM.

Police officers at the city hall were treated to a novelty yesterday afternoon by T. J. Halstead of Dallas, Tex., who explained to them the ad-