DIED

DURAGIO—Angelo, aged 56 years, died yesterday at his home, 1034 Elm street. Mr. Duraglo had worked for many years at the steel works and had been a resident of Pueblo for the past thirty years. He is survived by the wife and several children. He was quite prominently known and occupied a position of trust with the C. F. & I. The remains are at McCarthy's. Funeral announcement will be made later.

HAMERSTROM—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Hamerstrom of 2627 Cedar, died last evening. The child was only 21 days old. The body was cared for by the Davis & Yorks parlors.