is too absurd for consideration."

Mrs. Antoinette Funk, a lawyer, who attended the dressmakers meeting and heard the uniformity speeches, laughed and said: "Instinct makes the baby girl grab for brightly colored ribbon, her baby brother for the plain little top. It is nature and all the suggestions on earth will never change it."

Inquest Over Earl Remains

The remains of Link Earl who was killed Sunday night by being hit over the head with a baseball bat, are at Davis & Vories and will be held there until an inquest is held Wednesday morning. Evidence is being collected by the coroner and sheriff's office which, it is believed, will be sufficient to find Fred Walker guilty of the crime.

Two arrests were made yesterday by Detectives Baty and Greene the parties involved being closely connected with the murdered man. They gave the names of Edna Walker and Mary Holmes and were locked up as witnesses for the inquest.
