PERSONAL.

Byron Graves spent Sunday in Pueblo.

E. J. Taubman returned yesterday to Denver.

Grant Morris of Kansas City is visiting relatives in the city.

Charles De Nio, who has been in the hospital for two months is able to be out.

Miss Maud Hibbard, of Denver, spent Sunday with her sister, Miss Dorathy Hibbard.

Milan B. Woods is quite low at St. Mary's hospital. His chance of recovering is small.

S. J. Burris came down from Colorado Springs yesterday to spend Sunday with his family.

Mrs. W. T. Booth spent Sunday in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Withers. She will return to Cripple Creek today.

Miss Agnes Langdon, who has been sick at her home of west Thirteenth street for the past three weeks, has so far recovered that she is now able to see her many friends, who are glad to hear of her safe recovery.

The Denver Post says: Mrs. and Mrs. Louis Spratlin leave Monday for an extended eastern and southern trip. They will go first to Kansas City, where they will spend a few days with the Wincells, and then on to Chicago, and thence to New York, where they will be joined by Ethel McMana, who will go to Florida with them. They will not return until the first of April.

OBITUARY.

MRS. MAUD EMERY.

Mrs. Maud Emery, beloved wife of Charles E. Emery, died at the Pueblo hospital Saturday evening, where she had been removed for an operation, from which she was unable to recover. Deceased leaves two children, a son of 7 and a daughter of 2 years, with the husband, father and mother, to mourn their sad loss. Her mother, Mrs. F. Busch, arrived here from Denver Sunday afternoon. The funeral will take place at the family residence, 812 West Seventeenth street, at 2 p. m. today.

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF.

BETTER TIME—Trains were more nearly on time yesterday than for several days past.

PROHIBITION CLUB—The Prohibition club will meet with Mrs. Olds at the St. James hotel, Fifth street entrance, this evening at 8 o'clock.

HAD RHEUMATISM—Henry Cronin was removed yesterday noon from the Star lodging house to the Pueblo hospital. He was badly crippled with rheumatism.

TELFORD CLUB—The Telford Parliamentary club will have a meeting today at the home of Mrs. John Ward, 1315 East Ninth street. Count Tolstoi will be the author.

WAS BEGGING—John Fitzgerald was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police on a charge of vagrancy. It is alleged that he was begging along North Main street.

PENNY READING—The third of the Penny readings at the guild hall of Holy Trinity church comes off tonight. These are open affairs to all who are interested and enjoy such things.

SECOND DEATH—Peaqule Silvio, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silvest Silvio, died last night at the family home on South Santa Fe avenue. This is the second child that the family has lost in the last few days, the cause being pneumonia.

"SOMETHING LEFT OVER"—Parents will remember with pleasure the lecture given by William Hawley Smith in Pueblo a year or so ago, and should buy tickets and take their children to hear him again at the First Methodist church next Monday night. His subject will be "Something Left Over," and a great literary treat is promised all who attend. Mr. Smith is a wit and humorist of national renown, and crowded houses greet him wherever he goes.
