LOCAL BASEBALL.

The Centennial Junior baseball team will play the Somerlids in Fairmount park this afternoon.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of John H. Everhart took place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. M. R. Bright, 321 West Ninth street yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. W. O. Cone conducted the services. The Misses Smith sang several appropriate selections. The flowers were abundant and beautiful.

The pallbearers were Lew Barnum, W. S. McNamara, George Moyer, Ed Ross, W. H. Bonny and Alva Adams, Jr. The flower bearers were J. H. Olmes and Albert Booth.

THOUSANDS LOCKED OUT.

Lowell, Mass., March 28.—That the 16,000 employes of the seven cotton manufacturing corporations of this city, who have demanded an advance of 10 per cent in wages with a strike on next Monday as the alternative, will be locked out unless a settlement is reached, became apparent today when the agents of all the cotton mills caused to be posted on the gates notices informing the operatives that after tomorrow the mills would be closed until further notice.

IT CIRDLES THE GLOBE.

The fame of Bucklin's Arnica Salve, as the best in the world, extends round the earth. It's the one perfect healer of cuts, corns, burns, bruises, sores, scalds, boils, ulcers, felons, aches, pains and all skin eruptions. Only infallible pile cure; 25c a box at Baldwin Drug