stop-over privns to Texas and ther information office corner 3rd
. L. DREW,
C. P. A.

RANDE R. R.

s, magnificently Colorado Springs onvenient hours ular line for the Grande office for RANDE R. R.

n the following be almost imhe service beDenver. Leave a. m., 8 a. m., .02 p. m., 5:32 p. m., 9:35 a. m., p. m., 8 p. m., each way daily.

THING.

oute of the Colalifornia by way by real Southern

BORN.

PRATT—Sunday, March 8, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pratt, of 126 East Sixth street, a six-pound son.

ELLIOT—Saturday, March 7, 1903, to Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Elliot, of 717 west Fourteenth street, an eleven pound son.

DIED.

DEGRADO—Sunday, March 8, 1903, at Vineland, Joe DeGrado, son of Mr. and Mrs. John DeGrado.

Funeral announcement later.

CARR—Sunday, March 8, 1903, William T. Carr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carr, of 316 West Third street, aged one year and five months.

Funeral announcement later.

DAVIS—Sunday, March 8, 1903, Philip Davis, aged 61 years.

Funeral announcement later.

There are others but none just as good as the Colorado & Southern for Colorado Springs and Denver.