handed the revolver with which Fahey was shot to Lee Bohannon.

Both of the Bohannons refuse to talk. Lee no doubt expected to have his brother and sister-in-law released when he stated that he did the shooting and that the others were not implicated but the officers thought differently, and therefore preferred charges against all.

WHISKY AND SUICIDE