DEATHS AND FUNERALS

John J. Lancendorfer, well-known resident of Pueblo and residing here for the past seven years passed away Saturday following an illness of short duration. Mr. Lancendorfer was a musician by occupation. He is survived by his wife and two sons: Anton and John and three daughters: Mrs. Ihl, Mrs. Shaffer, all of Pueblo and Mrs. Fedor, also a grand daughter residing in Wal- senburg, Mrs. Vegas and Mrs. Horvath a granddaughter residing in Pueblo. The remains were removed to McCarthy's undertaking parlors and the funeral will take place from the late residence, 1618 Pine street this morn- ing at 8:30 and from St. Francis Xav- ier church at 3. Rev. Dreane will con- duct the services and the interment will be in the family lot in Roselawn.

The funeral of Mrs. Mahala Hearn, was held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the McCarthy funeral chapel. Rev. W. T. Hilton, conducted the ser- vices and delivered a beautiful eulogy, imparting words of comfort to the be- rayed relatives of the woman. There
